Inflation Impact

We are in the process of assessing the impact of inflation on the domestic B2C subscription business. We are closely monitoring trends for those products where we have already raised prices owing to rising manufacturing costs.

As Purple Carrot (U.S.) has been significantly impacted by rising raw material/logistical costs, we expect to implement countermeasures such as raising prices.

Domestic B2C (Oisix, Daichi, Radish Boya)

Overseas B2C (US : Purple Carrot)

present condition

- ✓ The main products we handle are domestically produced and private brands, Price hikes were implemented for some products due to an increase in production costs.

⇒At present, there have been no major changes in customer trends, Effects are still being assessed.

- ✓ Due to rapid inflation since the 2H of last year, Significant increase in costs, including personnel costs for raw materials and warehouse work staff

⇒Operating income for the previous period: 1H: 0.8 bn yen in the 1H ⇒ in the 2H : 0.15 bn yen
Significant deterioration in profit margins

Future Policies

We will be assessing pricing strategies as we monitor subscriber behavioral trends and implement appropriate pricing in the event of large raw material price increases and/or where inflation is prolonged.

Such as raising prices for meal kits and changing suppliers Early implementation of initiatives to improve profitability

Main Business Risks

■ Effects of climate change

Fresh produce accounts for about 30 % of Group sales. We deploy a structure for fresh produce that makes it possible to secure supplies from other regions if poor weather in specific regions prevents harvests or results in poor quality. The system distributes transactions and in principle allows procurement of key products from multiple producer regions. Nevertheless, poor weather lasting longer and having more broad-ranging effects than expected may lead to product shortages and quality issues, with potential consequences for Group businesses and business results.

■ Effects of concentration of logistics centers

We operate our own logistics centers, where logistics functions such as inspection, storage, sorting, and packing of our products are concentrated. For the most part, products under the Oisix brand are shipped to customers through our logistics center located in the city of Ebina, Kanagawa Prefecture. Those under the DWMK brand are shipped through a center located in the city of Narashino, Chiba Prefecture. If a natural disaster, fire, or other cause were to render either or both logistics centers unable to operate, potential consequences include inventory losses, shipping delay, and temporary suspension of services, which in turn would affect Group businesses and business results.

■ Issues related to food safety

We have established proprietary standards for the products handled for all our major brands. Whenever possible, we seek to offer produce grown without pesticides or chemical fertilizers. Our processed food products are made using the fewest possible additives. We have also established unique inspection systems for produce (including inspections of production sites and testing for residual pesticides) and processed food products (including use of third-party experts and independent institutions). We also strive to secure appropriate quality and safety that can be objectively demonstrated and evaluated through health and safety management guidance provided to suppliers and other means. Nevertheless, it remains possible that those who produce the products we offer may provide misleading or fraudulent labels regarding use of pesticides and similar matters or provide false quality information. Such cases could well lead to rebuke or penalties from regulators, customer complaints, and compensation for damages, in turn damaging the image of the Group's brands or leading to a loss of confidence in the Group and potentially affecting Group businesses and business results.

■ Governance throughout the supply chain

The Group develops its business in collaboration with many business partners, from procurement to logistics and the last mile. If any of these supply chains were to experience an increase in occupational accidents caused by the working environment, or governance violations such as human rights abuses or concealment of wrongdoings, it could have an impact on our business and business performance.

The Group will strive to avoid or mitigate risks through close communication with business partners that make up the supply chain, jointly recognizing the possibility of incidents and security systems, and through collaborative work. We will also strive to transfer risks through the use of insurance and exemption and cancellation clauses in contracts.
